

Introducing

Lorie Peacock

Lorie Peacock is very proud to have been a Member of FirstOntario Credit Union for thirty years. Lorie is an autoworker from St. Catharines who can easily identify with the core values of FirstOntario. She believes in the long and proud history of her credit union and is pleased to have the opportunity to participate in the governance of FirstOntario. Lorie's is committed to making a positive difference in people's lives.

An employee of General Motors for over 28 years, and Member of Unifor Local 199, Lorie is actively involved in the community and her workplace. Lorie's education includes the McMaster University Labour Studies Program and St. Catharines Business College. Lorie is also a GM/Unifor Workplace Training Facilitator and an OFL Certified Health and Safety Instructor. She was also a past member of the St. Catharines & District Labour Council Executive Board, and served as General Motors/Unifor Employment Equity/Woman's Advocate.

Lorie is very involved in her community, participating regularly in walkathons and as an event organizer to purchase prosthetics for landmine victims. Lorie has supported both local and international organizations such as the United Way, Community Cares, the Alzheimer's Society, the Canadian Landmine Foundation, Gillian's Place, Aid's Niagara, Wellsprings Niagara and the Out of the Cold Program.

Lorie believes that FirstOntario Credit Union's roots and core values are all about building the community and serving our Members. Lorie is committed to working constructively with the other Directors and staff at the credit union to put our Members and community first.