

Introducing

Sandra Gribben

Sandra Gribben is a graduate of the Mack School of Nursing and McMaster University with a Diploma in Occupational Health and Safety. Sandra was employed full time as an Registered Staff Nurse and Charge Nurse at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, in St. Catharines for 35 years and retired in January 2007. She continued to work as a Staff Nurse on a casual basis within the Niagara Health System until April of 2012.

Sandra is a founding member of the Canadian Association of Critical Care Nurses, Ontario Post Anaesthesia Nurses Association and the Ontario Nurses Association. She had participated on the Fiscal Advisory, Health and Safety, Mission and Philosophy Committees of Hotel Dieu Hospital. She has also participated in Labour Relations.

A credit union Member for over 40 years, Sandra participated on the Niagara Falls Credit Union Branch Council pilot project.

Sandra also participated on the Provincial Board of Directors of the Ontario Nurses Association from its inception in 1973 to 1980. She also Served as Provincial Treasurer for one term and Provincial Chair of the first Central Negotiating Committee in 1981. Sandra represented Nurses as Provincial President in 1979 and represented Nurses on a Regional/Provincial level for over 30 years through ONA.

A Director of FirstOntario Credit Union for the past ten years, Sandra received her Credit Union Directors Achievement Designation (CUDA) in her first year as Director. Sandra is the past Chair of the Member's Committee and the Elections Committee.

In her role as a Director on the FirstOntario Board of Directors, Sandra enjoys exploring opportunities that will enable our Members, especially youth, new Canadians and small business entrepreneurs, to improve their future financial well being and quality of life.